

Bridge Training Program for Foresters

Online courses designed to improve access to training tools for professional foresters

Tree and Stand Dynamics

Forest to Landscape

Leadership Skills

Professionalism and Ethics

The online modules are designed to help internationally trained foresters and domestically trained foresters from non-accredited post-secondary programs acquire the skills they need to practise professional forestry in Canada.

Registration is now open!

courses.cif-ifc.org

These elements of the Bridge Training Program for Foresters are being collaboratively administrated by The Canadian Institute of Forestry, The University of Toronto Faculty of Forestry, and Haliburton Forest.