Article 7.11 – Vacancies The seat of a committee member becomes vacant upon the death, resignation, removal, disqualification or inability to serve of the member.
Article 7.12 – Remaining Members Constitute the Committee Where one or more vacancies occur in the membership of a committee, the remaining members shall constitute the committee so long as their number is not fewer than the quorum prescribed by law or this by-law.
Article 7.13 – Replacing Vacancies

By-Law
Where a vacancy occurs in any committee, the Council, or when authority has been delegated, the Chair of the committee, may appoint a replacement for the remainder of the term.
Article 7.14 – Disqualification of Committee Members A committee member who is a Member of the Association is disqualified from sitting on a committee if: a) the Discipline Committee finds the Member guilty of professional misconduct or unskilled practice of forestry or finds the Member to be incapacitated; b) the member fails, without satisfactory reason acceptable to the Council, to attend three consecutive committee meetings; c) the member fails, without reason satisfactory to the Council, to attend a hearing for a matter for which the member has been selected; d) the member is a member of Council and has been disqualified from sitting on Council; or e) the member otherwise fails to fulfill their duties or is no longer suitable for the office and the Council decides that the member should be disqualified.
Article 7.15 – Temporary Disqualification An committee member who is a Member of the Association and who becomes the subject of allegations of professional misconduct, unskilled practice of forestry or incapacity referred to the Discipline Committee or who ceases to be in Good Standing, shall not serve on the committee until the proceeding is completed or until Good Standing is restored, as the case may be.
Article 7.16 - Removal of Committee Members Despite the other provisions of this by-law that permit the removal of a committee member in specific circumstances, Council may also remove a member of a Committee at its pleasure.
Article 7.17 – Meeting Frequency Unless otherwise specified by Council, the frequency of committee meetings shall be determined by the Chair or a quorum of the committee and shall be at such intervals as necessary for the committee to perform its duties.
Article 7.18 – Meetings by Teleconference Committee meetings may, at the direction of the Chair, be conducted, in whole or in part, by teleconference or by other electronic means where all members can participate simultaneously.
Article 7.19 – Minutes Minutes of the meetings of the Registration Committee and Executive Committee of the Association shall be recorded and shall include: a) a record of all motions, decisions and recommendations; b) the names of the members of the Committee; and c) the names of the members of the Committee present at each meeting.
Article 7.20 – Meeting Procedures The process for casting and recording votes and other procedures relating to committee meetings may be established by Council and may be included in the terms of reference. Unless otherwise specified or agreed by the participants, Roberts Rules of Order apply.

By-Law
Article 8.1 – Definition of Conflict of Interest for Council and Committee Members A conflict of interest exists where a Council or committee member has an interest or a relationship that might reasonably be viewed as influencing or affecting their duties to the Association or its mandate. It may be actual or potential, real or perceived, direct or indirect.
Article 8.2 – Duty to Serve the Public Interest All members of Council and all committee members have a duty to carry out their responsibilities in a manner that serves and protects the interest of the public without conflict of interest.
Article 8.3 – Interests of Family For the purposes of this by-law, the personal or financial interests, direct or indirect, of a Related Person or a Related Corporation, are interpreted to be the interests of the member of Council or the committee member, as the case may be unless it is unreasonable to do so.
Article 8.4 – Where Conflict Shall not be Deemed Members of Council and committee members shall not be deemed to have a conflict of interest when considering, recommending or approving resolutions relating to: a) the remuneration of Council members, b) the indemnification of Council members, c) the acquisition of insurance in respect of the indemnification of Council members, or d) a matter that does not materially affect the Council or committee member more than any other member of the public or professional forester practising in the Council or committee member’s area of practice.
Article 8.5 – Declaration of Conflict Where a member of Council or a committee member believes that the member may have a conflict of interest in any matter which is the subject of deliberation or action by the Council or the committee, the member shall consult, as needed, with the President, the Registrar or legal counsel and, if there is any doubt about the matter, declare the potential conflict to the Council or the committee and accept Council’s or the committee’s direction as to whether there is an appearance of a conflict.
Article 8.6 – Where a Conflict Exists Where a member of Council or a committee member believes that the member has a conflict of interest, including an appearance of a conflict of interest, in any matter which is the subject of deliberation or action by the Council or its Committees, the member shall: (a) prior to any consideration of the matter at the meeting, disclose the fact that the member has a conflict of interest; (b) not take part in the discussion of, or vote on, any question in respect of the matter; (c) absent themselves from the portion of the meeting relating to the matter; and (d) not attempt, in any way, to influence the voting or do anything that might be perceived as attempting to influence the decision of other members on the matter.
Article 8.7 – Declarations Recorded in Minutes Every declaration of conflict of interest and the nature of the conflict shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
Article 8.8 –Use of Association Property

By-Law
A member of Council or a committee shall not use Association property or information of any kind to advance their own interests, either directly or indirectly, unless prior written approval has been received from the Executive Director or by resolution of Council.
Article 8.9 – Staff Positions A member of Council or its committees may not hold any staff position, contract or appointment, with the Association while serving as a member of Council or a committee. This provision does not apply to staff acting as Ex Officio members.
Article 9.1 – Duties Every member of Council and every committee member shall, in the performance of their duties: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) familiarize themselves with the Act and its regulations, the by-laws and any rules and policies of the Association; b) familiarize themselves with any other records and documents that may be necessary for the performance of their duties; c) comply with the provisions of the Act and the by-laws and any rules and policies that are adopted by Council, from time to time; d) regularly attend meetings on time and participate constructively in discussions; e) ensure that confidential matters coming to their attention as a member of the Council or as a member of a committee are not disclosed by him or her, except as required for the performance of their duties, as directed by the Council or the Chair or in accordance with the Act; f) conduct themselves in an appropriate manner with Association staff, other members of Council or members of the committees, Members of the Association and members of the public; g) exercise care, diligence, skill and prudence in carrying out the business of the Association; h) avoid, or where that is not possible, declare all conflicts of interest in the manner set out in the by-law; i) perform the duties associated with their position, conscientiously and in a manner that serves the public interest; and j) seek to enhance the public perception of the Association and of the regulation of the profession of forestry.
Article 9.2 – Contravention of Duties The Executive Director shall report to the Executive Committee any complaint in writing that a member of Council or a committee member has contravened Article 9.1 or any other obligation found in the Act or the by-laws.
Article 9.3 – Complaints Warranting Formal Action If the Executive Committee, after any investigation it deems appropriate, believes that the complaint warrants formal action, it shall call a meeting of the Council to determine whether there has been a breach of duties and, if so, the appropriate sanction.
Article 9.4 – Opportunity to Respond The person whose conduct is the subject of concern shall be given a reasonable opportunity to respond to the complaint before the Executive Committee decides to take formal action.
Article 9.5 – Sanction The appropriate sanction can include one or more of the following:

By-Law

⁹ Section 3 of the Act reads as follows:

3. (1) The practice of professional forestry is the provision of services in relation to the development, management, conservation and sustainability of forests and urban forests where those services require knowledge, training and experience equivalent to that required to become a member under this Act and includes,

By-Law
Article 13.2 – Application of Standards ¹⁰ The Standards of Practice apply to all Members of the Association.
Article 13.3 – Relation to Code of Ethics The Standards of Practice shall be read in conjunction with, and interpreted in a manner that is consistent with, the Code of Ethics and the definition of professional misconduct established in Regulation 145/01.
Article 13.4 – Professional Standards of Practice Professional Standards of Practice are the minimum expectations for the profession. They are relevant to the application of professionally accepted methodologies and procedures in both obtaining and interpreting information in the course of practising professional forestry. For the Ontario Professional Foresters Association the Standards of Practice are as follows:
Standard 1 - Conforming to Legislation A member of the Association shall undertake activities in conformity to all applicable legislation and in consideration of all applicable guidelines. In order to do this, the member must maintain familiarity with the legislation, regulations, and guidelines which are applicable or relevant to the member’s practice.

- (a) the designing, specifying or approving of silvicultural prescriptions and treatments, including timber harvesting;
 - (b) the appraisal, evaluation and certification of forests and urban forests;
 - (c) the auditing of forest management practices;
 - (d) the assessment of impacts from planned activities on forests and urban forests;
 - (e) the classification, inventory and mapping of forests and urban forests; and
 - (f) the planning and locating of forest transportation systems, including forest roads. 2000, c. 18, s. 3 (1).

Exclusions

\(2\) The practice of professional forestry does not include acts performed in relation to the management or manipulation of forests if they are performed,

- (a) personally by individuals on land which they own;
- (b) by a person acting within the scope of practice of a profession, trade or occupation that is listed in the regulations;
- (c) by persons responding to an emergency situation such as a forest fire;
- (d) by persons acting under the supervision of a member;
- (e) by students enrolled in a forestry education program and under the supervision of the course instructor in the program;
- (f) by a member of the armed forces while on duty; or
- (g) by a person engaged in scientific research. 2000, c. 18, s. 3 (2).

¹⁰ The previous by-laws contained the following explanations regarding standards that may continue to be useful:

Professional Standards of Practice relate to how a Member of the Association goes about his or her work. They refer to the application of professionally accepted methodologies and procedures in both obtaining and interpretation of information. They are applicable to professional conduct and action.

Professional Standards of Practice are distinct from technical standards that may be imposed by legislation or specified by an owner or employer. Silvicultural Standards and Guidelines are examples of technical standards. These are associated with professional activities and are the prerogative of the client.
